Thailand. Purpose is to assist the poor, especially children and young girls. Started 16 years ago through a church organization. Education cost $30 per month per child plus uniform and books. Average monthly income is $215. MOGI is made up of Canadian volunteers, contributions can be made by adopting a child or assist with their project 'brick by brick' to assist in the capital in developing a five acre parcel of land to be self sufficient in helping the poor.
